

CONTEXTUALLY-BASED & COMMUNITY-CONNECTED CURRICULUM DESIGN

Empowers students to make informed choices and develop an inner passion to succeed as a productive citizen by developing the desire to achieve a successful career. This is done:

IN THE CLASSROOM THROUGH SCHOOL-BASED LEARNING:

Academics are taught in ways that demonstrate relationships between school, work, and life to develop necessary career life skills

IN THE WORKPLACE THROUGH WORK-BASED LEARNING:

Students and teachers visit business and industry to understand the applications of academics to workplace standards

THROUGH LIAISONS WHO PROVIDE CONNECTING ACTIVITIES:

Where business and community members establish meaningful partnerships with education to build Contextually-Based and Community-Connected curriculum
